History of the College

Nandyal is one of the important towns in Rayalaseema region. This town is an abode of Nine Nandis and attained significance since ancient times. People from all over the country visit this town to reach Mahanandi where one of the prominent nandis is located. During the past two decades Nandyal witnessed rapid growth in the field of education, agriculture and industry.

In order to provide higher education to the people of this place and adjoining villages a few philanthropists like Sri. Pasapula Subbarayudu Chetty and Kasetty Venkata Subbaiah Chetty came forward with donations and established this College in the year 1967. In the beginning Pre-University Courses like M.P.C, Bi.P.C. C.E.C, H.E.C, and U.G Courses like B.A, B.Com, & B.Sc., were offered.
